

WOMEN'S VOICES NOW

OUR MISSION

Women's Voices Now is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization using film to drive positive social change that advances women's and girls' rights globally.

OUR VISION

We envision a global culture shift in which communities and institutions believe in the value of gender equality, and adapt their behaviors and actions to support systematic advancement of women's and girls' rights.

OUR APPROACH

We empower filmmakers, produce social-change films, and engage audience members to advance women's and girls' rights.

FILM FESTIVAL

Our Online Film Festival promotes emerging filmmakers making social-change films that advocate for women's and girls' rights around the world.

YOUTH PROGRAM

Girls' Voices Now empowers girls from under-resourced communities of Los Angeles to find, develop, and use their voice for positive social change through filmmaking.

FILM COLLECTION

Our free Film Collection raises awareness of the struggles and triumphs of women and girls around the globe, inviting audience members to support women's and girls' rights.

OUR IMPACT

Since 2010, we have received 965+ film submissions from 85+ countries and awarded $118,000 in cash prizes to filmmakers.

Since 2018, we have served girls from 67 under-resourced communities and produced 17 youth-made short films seen by over 750,000 online viewers - and won a Daytime Emmy!

Our Film Collection includes 200+ films in 44 different languages and has attracted 20M+ online viewers from 178 countries around the world.

OUR GLOBAL PARTNERS

Since 2017, we have held special consultative status to the United Nations ECOSOC. Our work is internationally recognized for impacting six of the UN Sustainable Development Goals (UN SDGs).
